Course Overview

This qualification aims to raise awareness of:

- the role of the mental health worker
- the process and approaches involved in the care and support of those who experience mental ill health.

What Qualifications Or Experience Do I Need?

There are no previous entry requirements for this qualification. As this is a Distance Learning programme, you must be able to commit some spare time to work on your assessments inbetween your tutorials.

How Long Is The Course?

12 weeks.

What Will I Learn?

This qualification is designed for a wide range of learners who wish to understand the approaches to care and support of those with mental health problems.

How Will I Learn?

Upon enrolment, your tutor will provide you with a resource pack which will contain three workbooks with a corresponding end of unit assessment booklet to complete. Your tutor will arrange a three-weekly tutorial session to give you support, advice and guidance on the course content and to provide feedback on the work you have completed. To be awarded the qualification, you need to successfully complete the three workbooks.

How Will I Be Assessed?

Your tutor will mark your completed end of unit assessment booklets which will then be verified by the awarding body. No examinations are required.

Where Could This Course Lead To?

You may wish to broaden your knowledge by completing our other available short courses: Equality & Diversity, Mental Health Awareness, Principles of Dementia Care, Understanding the Safe Handling of Medicines and Principles of End of Life Care.
