Course Overview

This programme of study is designed for adults who are working in a school assisting teaching staff for a minimum of 10 hours per week. To gain the qualification, learners will need to achieve 32 credits at Level 3 or above.

What Qualifications Or Experience Do I Need?

Candidates are expected to have sufficient literacy and numeracy skills to undertake the award. It is therefore recommended that candidates for this award should: 1) Have sufficient general education to undertake a Level 3 qualification; 2) Be working in a school in a paid, voluntary or placement capacity with 5-16 year olds; 3) Have significant work experience in a school setting; 4) Dependent upon funding, be able to attend up to 8 hours per week for classroom/workshop sessions. To be discussed individually at induction/advice prior to starting.

How Long Is The Course?

24 weeks.

What Will I Learn?

There are 11 mandatory units which total 32 credits: Understand Child and Young Person Development, Understand How to Safeguard the Wellbeing of Children and Young People, Communication and Professional Relationships with Children and Young People, Schools as Organisations, Support Learning Activities, Promote Children and Young People's Positive Behaviour, Develop Professional Relationships with Children, Young People and Adults, Promote Equality, Diversity and Inclusion in Work with Children and Young People, Support Assessment for Learning, Engage in Personal Development in Health, Social Care or Children's and Young People's Settings, Support Children and Young People's Health and Safety.

How Will I Learn?

The underpinning knowledge is delivered through weekly classroom/workshop sessions using a range of assessment methods. Candidates are encouraged to develop their skills and knowledge which will allow them to work independently where possible. Practical activities will play a central role within the course. Time spent in placement is vital to the learning approach, where candidates learn from experience.

How Will I Be Assessed?

Assessment enables the learner's workplace practice to provide evidence for individual units as well as the whole qualification. Methods of assessment could include: inference of knowledge from direct observation of practice, witness evidence, professional discussion/questions, reflective accounts, written assignments, work products, tasks set by Cache. The qualification is competence-based and quality-assured at the centre. All the core units must be fully achieved in order to obtain the full Level 3 Certificate.
